FIRM INTRODUCTION:

Since our launch in April 2016, in Nairobi, Kenya, our law firm continues to draw from a wide base of skills and expertise from a variety of experience levels to serve our clients. We merge knowledge and technical ability with the correct legal advice to offer our clients a satisfactory resolution to their legal challenges.

We offer a solid grasp of Kenya’s business, civil and family legal environments by relying on our firm’s capable leadership and our reliable staff team.

In addition to our staff, the firm depends on reputable strategic partners and consultants in different professional fields. We have access to and work closely with competent loss adjusters, auctioneers, auditors, process servers, private investigators, and research assistants who provide additional expertise to improve the resolution of all matters that we handle.

At Kimiti & Associates, we make sure that all our partners and staff members, as well as associates, undergo a rigorous practical and theoretical training. We do so to ascertain their level of skills, experience, and practice and to ensure that they conform to the codes of conduct approved by the Law Society of Kenya.

We are committed to excellence, integrity, and hard work. The firm combines these attributes with a dedication to serving the needs of all our clients. We are dedicated to providing quality service for the fulfillment of our client’s expectations.

Our firm is headquartered at Nairobi with a branch office in Kerugoya.
